FROM EURE PASTOR'S DESK

John D. Eure

How blessed we are when God gives us celebrations that remind us of greater things to come! That is how I see Ferry Farm's upcoming Homecoming on Sunday, September 29! He has allowed us to exist as His local church for 60 years!

The Apostle Paul tried to explain how we see God's magnificence on Earth as compared to how it would be when seen fully in Heaven. He wrote, "Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity." -[1 Corinthians 13:12]. If we enjoy celebrating Homecoming here, can you imagine how spectacular it will be when we celebrate it with all believers from all generations before Christ our King in Heaven?

As we thrive and share the Good News with others, let's plan for an oasis of joyful reflection. I invite you to find a place to serve as we celebrate on an earthly-scale.

Contact a Team Member. The 60th Anniversary members are:

Lynne Lansford,

John Lippincott

Dorothy Rutledge

Barbara Tokar

Peggy Withers

Two others assisting the Team are:

Sonny Tolley

John Eure (me)

Smaller teams have been formed and you're invited to serve:

* Promotion

* Homecoming Meal

(help with publishing and promo ideas) (planning dinner for Sept. 29th)

* Fun Day Fellowship

* Invitations/Notices

(fun activities for Sept. 28)

(contact former members and former staff)

As we celebrate 60 years and move towards year 61, the Team desires for us to:

Gratefully Learn from the Past-

Serve By Faith in the Present -

Prepare for the Future in Awe!

What is WMUV? WMUV is the Women's Missionary Union of Virginia. It was formed by bold and innovative women who had a passion to reach outside the walls of their church to help a hurting world, whether through praying, giving or going. The following timeline affirms WMUV's radical, progressive roots that remain relevant to our world today.

- April 4, 1872: Women from five churches in Richmond meet and organize the Woman's Missionary Society of Richmond as the first cooperative organization of Baptist women from more than one church, south of the Potomac.
- July 7, 1873: Charlotte Lottie Moon is appointed by the Foreign Mission Board (FMB).
- September 7, 1874: Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia (WMUV) is born as a result of helping to raise money for the FMB to supply Lottie Moon and her sister Edmonia Moon with a home in China.
- May 14, 1888: Woman's Missionary Union, SBC, is established at a meeting in Richmond, VA.
- January, 1889: Woman's Missionary Society of Virginia contributes $361.06 to a special offering to help raise support for two women missionaries to replace Miss Moon so she could come home on furlough. In 1918 this offering is named for Lottie Moon.
- March 1895: Week of Prayer and Self-Denial is established to assist the Home Mission Board with their financial need. This will later become known as the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering after the first recording secretary of WMU, SBC.
- 1898: WMUV begins to receive Cooperative Program funds for its administrative operations.
- May 1921: White Cross Chairman sends supplies of bandages, towels, sheets, pillow slips, etc. from 102 WMU's throughout Virginia to the hospital in Nigeria.
- Summer 1922: First Girls in Action (GA) camp building finished at Virginia Beach, VA.
- 1930: Establishment of the Kersey Home for Motherless Children.
- 1934: Interracial work begins.
- 1934: WMUV collects $23, 625.29 to help pay the debt of the Foreign Mission Board.
- 1940: Camp Carey established in Chesterfield, Virginia for young girls and women from Negro Baptist Churches in Va.
- 1946: WMUV gives money for relief and rehabilitation to the stricken countries of Europe and Asia.
- 1947: Virginia women give sewing machines to the women of Germany to help open sewing centers throughout the country.
- 1951: Camp Viewmont is opened for girls in Central Virginia.
- 1956: Mission work with Spanish-speaking migrants begins in Accomack.
- 1959: Three good will centers are established throughout Virginia by WMUV.
- 1985: Camp Little Cross Roads is opened for GAs and Acteens, as well as retreats for all ages.
- 1998: Virginia Missions Offering is named for Miss Alma Hunt, and is now called the Alma Hunt Offering for Virginia Missions.
- 1999: "Camp Little CrossRoads" changes its name to CrossRoads Camp and Conference Center.
- 2004: The WMUV Board of Trustees and Advisory Board signs and affirms the Declaration of the Dignity of Women.
- 2005: Aging With Significance is developed to equip mature adults for spiritual, educational, and functional life fulfillment.
- 2008: Miss Alma Hunt dies June 14.
- Updraft (SM), a missions experience for youth, is launched.
- 2009: WMUV launches a new "look", new logo, new website, and a new blog.

Youth Ministry News

Happy June FFBC Youth!

We pray for you often during the school year, and as you begin this new season of summer, you will continue to be in our prayers! Although our summer schedule is slightly different, we hope that you will stay involved and connected with the FFBC Youth Ministry!

We will be releasing a summer schedule in early June 2019, so please keep any eye on our Facebook page & <http://www.ferryfarmbc.org/youth-ministry/> for more information.
